Booth Spaces are limited to 20 vendors, with each space being 10 ft. x 8 ft. The market is located at the Eagle Station-Brick Room, 3507 Williams Street, Patterson, Georgia, which is a secure, air conditioned and heated area. There is NO CHARGE for each vendor space. All booth spaces will be coordinated through City Hall. Please contact Ray Cunningham, City Clerk, eaglestation2013@gmail.com, or Tina White, Public Relations Coordinator, pattersongapublicrelations@gmail.com, for scheduling and more information, (912) 647-5776.

- Vendors can arrive on Monday afternoon to set up, or Tuesday morning
- Regular weekly vendors will retain their spot, and may leave their products over night on Tuesdays, but must be carried home on Wednesdays
- Vendors should provide any tables, chairs, tents, boxes, bags or other necessary items
- Please make your designated area neat and attractive and take all trash when leaving
- All items sold must meet State and County health regulations
- Vendor is responsible for sales tax remittances to the state
- Each vendor will set their own prices, which will be clearly posted; no “hawking” or yelling
- Produce must be grown within 100 miles of City of Patterson; any exception for specialty items will be determined by the Mayor
- Vendors must bring their own money to make change
- The sale of homemade baked goods must be appropriately packaged.

An All-American rural town.
A growing community with a bright future.
A place to call home.
